Desperado

Rihanna

Desperado, sitting in an old Monte Carlo

A man whose heart is hollow

Take it easy, I'm not tryna go against you

Actually, I'm going with youGotta get up out of here and you ain't leaving me behind

I know you won't, 'cause we share common interests

You need me, there ain't no leaving me behind

Never, no, no, just want out of here

Yeah, once I'm gone, ain't no going backIf you want we could be runaways, running from any sight of love

Yeah, yeah, there ain't nothing, there ain't nothing here for me

There ain't nothing here for me anymore

But I don't wanna be alone

Desperado, sitting in an old Monte Carlo

We've both had our hearts broke

Take it easy, I'm not trying to go against you

I can be a lone wolf with yaGotta get up out of here and you ain't leaving me behind

I know you won't, 'cause we share common interests

You need me, there ain't no leaving me behind

Never, no, no, both want out of here

Yeah, once we're gone, ain't no going backIf you want, we could be runaways, running from any sight of love

Yeah, yeah, there ain't nothing, there ain't nothing here for me

There ain't nothing here for me anymore

I don't wanna be aloneDear desperado

Yeah, I don't wanna be alone

Dear desperado

Yeah, I don't wanna be alone

If you want, we could be runaways, running from any sight of love

Yeah, yeah, there ain't nothing, there ain't nothing here for me

There ain't nothing here for me anymore

But I don't wanna be aloneIf you want, we could be runaways, running from any sight of love

Yeah, yeah, there ain't nothing, there ain't nothing here for me

There ain't nothing here for me anymore

But I don't wanna be alone
