

Crying Shame (feat. NERVO)

Pegboard Nerds

I'm driving past your house
I find myself in tears
Thinking about the love we shared Thinking about the times we had I don't know why I do this to myself and
A foolish heart is all I have so forgive me love It's a crying shame, it's a crying shame baby
Crying shame, it's a crying shame we ain't no more
Crying shame, it's a crying shame
'Cause our love is gone and our time is over A crying shame, it's a crying shame baby
Crying shame, it's a crying shame we ain't no more
Crying shame, it's a crying shame
'Cause our love is gone and our time is over
It's a crying shame baby
It's a cry-cry-cry
It's a crying shame baby Friends are telling me "be strong"
They remind me of no good
No one can take you away
And now I've got to live with this pain You haven't called, I wonder if I should Cause it feels like I'm dying inside
Yes it feels like I need to know It's a crying shame, it's a crying shame baby
Crying shame, it's a crying shame we ain't no more
Crying shame, it's a crying shame
'Cause our love is gone and our time is over A crying shame, it's a crying shame baby
Crying shame, it's a crying shame we ain't no more
Crying shame, it's a crying shame
'Cause our love is gone and our time is over
It's a crying shame baby
It's a cry-cry-cry
It's a crying shame baby It's a crying shame baby
'Cause our love is gone and our time is over 'Cause we had a good thing
In a second it's gone
What do you call it?
Well, it's a crying shame It's a crying shame
It's a crying shame Well it's a crying shame It's a cry-cry-cry
It's a crying shame baby Crying shame, it's a crying shame baby
Crying shame, it's a crying shame we ain't no more
Crying shame, it's a crying shame
'Cause our love is gone and our time is over
