Green Grass of Home

Eddy Arnold

The old hometown looks the same as I step down from the train

And there to meet me is my mama and papa

Down the road I look and there runs Mary hair of gold and lips like cherries

It's good to touch the green green grass of homeYes they'll all come to meet me arms areaching smiling sweetly

It's good to touch the green green grass of homeThe old house is still standing though the paint is cracked and dry

And there's that old oak tree that I used to play on Down the lane I walk and there Mary hair of gold and lips like cherries
It's good to touch the green grass of homeThen I awake look around me at the grey walls that surround me

And I realize that I was only dreaming

There's a guard and there's that sad old padre arm in arm we'll walk at daybreak

Again I'll touch I'll touch the green green grass of home

Yes they'll all come to see me in the shade of that old oak tree

As they lay me neath the green green grass of home
