

Double Entendre (feat. Sage the Gemini)

Eric Bellinger

You gonna be moaning til the moaning if I can get you that clothes
I know that's way you came here for
Your body's calling, we can call a night letter after we make sweet love
Ain't try to make you fall in love, Forever, girl I don't know how you feel it
So you feel me way deep inside
This sound like it's double entendre, double entendre
Read between the lines, that's how I let you know that I want you
Know that I want you, know that I want you
Say yey, yey
Say yey, yey
Say yey, yey
Say yey, yey
Say yey, yey
Say it's double entendre
You can play this but it's none in the...what we gonna do
You gonna be braking all your rules tonight
You and you bottle while I'm struggling your bottom
Until you try, ain't go
Baby, I try and try ain't go
How's left? girl I don't know how you feel it
So you feel me way deep inside
This sound like it's double entendre, double entendre
Read between the lines, that's how I let you know that I want you
Know that I want you, know that I want you
Say yey, yey
Say yey, yey
Say yey, yey
Say yey, yey
Say yey, yey
Say it's double entendre
Talking like it's double entendre
Messing all your make-up
Grabbing all your booty and I make all your make up
So ain't got all your tinedes
Promise I won't play I just crushing out
But I promise I'mma play hard
Let you legs here above me
Watch me catch an ...and I'm going down South
We're going local then we take a ride down South
Pick it up, lay down Double entendre, double entendre
Read between the lines, that's how I let you know that I want you
Know that I want you, know that I want you

Say yey, yey
Say yey, yey
Say yey, yey
Say yey, yey
Say yey, yey
Say it's double entendre Say yey, yey
Say yey, yey
Say yey, yey
Say yey, yey
Say yey, yey
Say it's double entendre Say yey, yey
Say yey, yey
Say yey, yey
Say yey, yey
Say yey, yey
Say it's double entendre
