

Crazyland

Eric Church

Let me take your hat friend
Tell me what's the matter
'Round here folks call me the mad hatter
That's Sad in the corner with his heart on his sleeve
Talking to Regret who's never gonna leave
Over there playing pool is Fool and Lost
And tending bar tonight that's All My Fault
We all just hang out and listen to Blues
Sing his songs there's nothing else to do in Crazyland
Since you said goodbye
It's been crazy man
Lunatics, liars and also-rans
Waiting on her leaving to come back again
Here in Crazyland
Talking to yourself is the only plan
Giving up on your last give a damn
Here in Crazyland Pick you out a stool son
I'll buy the first round
I'll tell you how her leaving
Brought the whole house down
No not that one that's Sorrows
He's over shaking hands with I Told You So
That's Out Of His Mind that just walked in He's Ole Insane's new best friend
It's a whole damn room full of lost whose who's
And you never know who you're gonna run into in Crazyland
Since she said goodbye
It's been crazy man
Lunatics, liars and also-rans
Waiting on her leaving to come back again
Here in Crazyland
Talking to yourself is the only plan
Giving up on your last give a damn
Here in Crazyland I didn't catch your name, friend, sorry 'bout that Sure nice to meet you, baby, please come back
