

Hole In My Pocket

Mac Miller

[intro]

ayye, turn my beat up a bit yo.forreal, or is it gonna get louder? alright cool.[verse 1] she keep getting played like it's recess, break her heart it's a reflex wanna hit the beach and show her ttities down in Key West someone leave her crying all the time, now she find me out a Kleenex sick of dudes not giving her the respect, but really she's a genius, a CEO tryna be on top, but woah she dont keep them clothes she be waiting for the opportunity to be the boss tough bitch probably would've thought she played lacross she keep being soft with her heart broken all the time once a money to fucking dude and falling all in love with who is nothing new only coming through, bust a nut or two she just need her family like the hugstable and now she on the road, after home to take over get rich and have the crib made over but she gonna do the partying, with a cup full, aint gonna trust you, but she gonna fuck you

[chorus]

She wants diamonds, she wants gold

but she is scandalous, get to blow and shes been high and shes been low and now she fighting on my own and they be looking, and they be finding, she aint grindin, she aint hiding till she find her way back home, till she find it all alone[Verse 2] she gonna be rich, its fuck in high school they were callin her a slut but now she comin out with a Louis Vuitton and Juicy on see the bitches be hating, like whats up?

cause they aint doin nothing, and she out here stuntin middle finger to the hoes, all them bitches had it coming yeah, on top of the world, she looking down invite you to the crib, let you look around just a fucking tease, tryna get ya cheese and invite you out to dinner cause she want to eat for free she could pay if she wanted too, she wont though, go home she got more dough

[chorus] x2

and now she fighting on my own and they be looking, and they be finding, she aint grindin, she aint hiding till she find her way back home, till she find it all alone
