Kasey Chambers

Oh my brother
Are you coming home?
But if you find another
That is made of stone
Oh my sister
Running down that track
I still miss her
But she ain't coming back
All that I know is that letting you go is colder than snow
And that hearts they don't grow on trees
And all that I have is a light in the bath
That is fading to black that I think looks a lot like me
We buy and we sell
We kiss and we tell
We all go to hell and back
We scream and we cry
We cheat and we lie
We all say goodbye, it's a fact
But nothing lasts
She was late for class
And she ran so fast in the rain
She's still running through my veins
Oh my mother
Stay in your bed
Take your lover
Try to forget
Oh my father
I wish you well
I know you loved her
Like no one else
All that I know is that letting you go is colder than snow
And that hearts they don't grow on trees
And all that I have is a light in the bath
That is fading to black that I think looks a lot like me
We buy and we sell
We kiss and we tell
We all go to hell and back
We scream and we cry
We cheat and we lie
We all say goodbye, it's a fact
But nothing lasts
She was late for class
And she ran so fast in the rain

She's still running through my veins Nothing lasts
She was late for class
And she ran so fast in the rain
