

Just Another Day

Jack Bruce & Robin Trower

When I wake up
I look into the sun
Vision break up
I can't see how it's done
When I wake up
It's just another days
If I could go there
The place behind my eyes
Would I know there
The truth behind the lies
Cause when I wake up It's just another days
Wanna stay where the light is streaming
Find the one who's dreaming me
Gonna stay where
I like the meaning
Hidden in my sleep
Is it real life
Or just inside my head
I can't feel life
So I stay alone in bed
Cause when I wake up
It will be a better day
