

Forgot to Laugh

Bridgit Mendler

When I read your face it's like a screen door
I can see right through your heart's window
Why you gotta treat me like the bimbo
That sticks it out when you don't care any more
You make it so easy
You're sweet like a Reese's Pieces
But I promise if you leave me
You'll be crawling on your knees so if you go
It's a joke
If you drive away
Hope you get a flat tire get stranded
If it's goodbye today
Know you're leaving here empty-handed
'Cause I've got my
Own life and
You're just a punch line
If you go
You're a joke
But I forgot to laugh
You don't like it when I check your iPhone
I don't even get my own ringtone
When you're heading out with all your best bros
You don't wanna tell me where you guys go
You say that I'm needy
Like a kid needs Reese's Pieces
But I promise if you leave me
You'll be running back to me at my door
What a joke
If you drive away
Hope you get a flat tire get stranded
If it's goodbye today
Know you're leaving here empty-handed
'Cause I've got my
Own life and
You're just a punch line
If you go
You're a joke
I forgot to laugh
So if you're saying peace like
You're so over me trying
To sting like a bee then I gotta laugh
You're more like a ducky

Or a cute little bunny
Think that you're funny I forgot to laugh, laugh
Like a diamond in a mountain of coal
I'm the girl that guys can't find anymore
Hey yeah!
'Cause I've got my
Own life and
If you go
You're a joke
'Cause I've got my
Own life and
If you go
You're a joke
But I forgot to laugh
Na na na na... (×4)
