

Mr Red White and Blue

Coffey Anderson

[Verse 1]

It's the guts and it's the glory
A hundred stripes a hundred stories
It's the pledge of allegiance on the fourth of July
It's them hand written letters from home
It's the sleepless nights alone
It's his new born baby he left with his wife [Chorus]
(Mr. Red White and Blue) lay down his life
(Mr. Red White and Blue) For these stars and stripes hey [Verse 2]

From the fields of Indiana
From the swamps of Louisiana
To the golden coast of Californ'
Uncle Sam's the only family he's got
His purple heart beat won't stop
And his eighteenth birthday was the day he was born

[Chorus]

(Mr. Red White and Blue) lay down his life
(Mr. Red White and Blue) for these stars and stripes
(Mr. Red White and Blue) stand on the front line
(Mr. Red White and Blue) pay the ultimate price
Ohhh

[Bridge]

He was the man of the house where he was born
His family is proud but torn
But if you knew him you would understand
He was raised on how to be brave
Just to see the flag still wave
And then he came home with only one hand

[Chorus]

He's Mr. Red White and Blue, lay down his life
(Mr. Red White and Blue) for these stars and stripes
(Mr. Red White and Blue) stand on these front lines
(Mr. Red White and Blue) he'll pay the ultimate price
(Mr. Red White and Blue) lay down his life
(Mr. Red White and Blue) for these stars and stripes [Outro]
March in line, march in line
Hey, hey ,hey
