Let Em' Know

Bryson Tiller

Right now
You are now tuned in
Pen Griffey
I'm still going in
"Who is he"
Muthafucka' I'm himI'm coming back for goodSo let them niggas know it's mines
Already got someone that's what you tell 'em every time
That shit ain't up for grabs
Where you at on the map
I come to where you at
Fuck around and end up your last
I won't hold back
I won't hold back
It's about time I do it
It's about time I say this shit
Spent a lot of time on the waiting list
Roll up the doja then blaze that shit
Who gonna give you love an insane as this
A-game girl, I bring that shit
I know you want the same last name as him
Him being Tiller he a solid young nigga, he been real ever since
I know you been tense
I know we ain't had a conversation in a minute
But you know what they say
If it ain't broke then don't fix it, it's clearly not broken
It's just so unfinished
I feel like my new bitch was just your apprentice
So we just got into it, here comes the ending
You said this shit would happen girl, that was your prediction
Said I'd never find no one like you and I should of listened
Who you fucking with now is that any of my business
Whoever it is may not be finished
But...I'm coming back for goodSo let them niggas know it's mines
Already got someone that's what you tell 'em every time
That shit ain't up for grabsWhere you at on the map
I come to where you at
Fuck around and end up your last
I won't hold backHope you still feel the same way
Don't say the same shit to me you'll never changeOh yeahI said it once straight, so fine
Can we do it like old times or nah, so fly
Oh why, didn't you
Tell me get my shit together and think it through

A nigga just was sitting here not knowing what to do
Aye. Thinking shit like who's out there fuckin you and who's keeping you comfortableShe gon' give me a second chance or nah
Did I make you fall in love again or nah
Fuck them other niggas you're mine
Hey baby
Hey...I'm so different
Nothing like them other niggas
Nothing like them other niggas
Nothing like them other niggas
Your so different
Nothing like them other bitches
Nothing like them other bitches
Nothing like them other bitches
True
Coming back for good so let them...
Niggas know it's mine...
Someone is what you tell 'em...
Every time
Every time
Every time...
