

Goldfish

Until The Ribbon Breaks

Maybe in another life
If we get another life
Maybe in that life...
Maybe in that life...Where is your guilt from
Or is it just imaginary?
It's your hope that I feel sorry for
The one you bury
The pressure breaks the levee
You've got a nerve... or you're just nervous
I'm trying to change your world
I pray for change, Hail Mary
I'd like to thank you for the feel
I've used it well, I trust nobody here
But I'm not the same as you
You're just a goldfish swimming in a bowl
Stare up to the surface, nobody will know
You're just as scared as them
You don't know where to go
You're just a lighthouse nobody can see This is my birdsong, this is my call
This is a mirror, hang it on the wall
And you'll see... nothing
I have a heart, I just couldn't put my mind to it
And maybe you're the other way around
You see the picture you just can't connect the sound
I broke the silence, you forgot the glue
I tried my best because I'm not the same as you, no You're just a goldfish swimming in a bowl
Stare up to the surface, nobody will know
You're just as scared as them
You don't know where to go
You're just a lighthouse nobody can see
You never prayed for me
Ooooh ooh oh ooh ooh
If this is what you want
Then good luck, and be gone Ooooh ooh oh ooh ooh
If this is what you need
Then good luck, and godspeed Ooooh ooh oh ooh ooh
You're not the same as me
Ooooh ooh oh ooh ooh
You're not the same as me You're just a lighthouse nobody can see Ooooh ooh oh ooh ooh
Ooooh ooh oh ooh ooh Ooooh ooh oh ooh ooh
Ooooh ooh oh ooh ooh
