What's been up with'cha homie, I know it's been a minute I'm going through it thinking how the fuck it ever ended I'm feeling like it wouldn't meant for them to come and get'cha Damn it goin be hard to expect it knowing I wouldn't with'cha (fuck) I only pray that'chu in heaven I'm going through hell It ain't easy fighting with pain when you know I'm so well Sometimes I wish I can see you and just talk Grab my kicks and giva fuck where we going and just walk But instead it's like I'm all alone, everything going wrong This shit got me confused, like were the fuck is home I spend my nice away in places where I don't belong Today I got the right to hurt I'm sick of being strong Memories of me and you left me in touch with anger Now me and my smile look at each other like we total strangers It's like I'm running on emotion covered up with pride The day you left the day that something inside of me died [Hook][Chorus][Verse 2:]

A couple hours on my knees praying heavy til I fall asleep
Struggling to live still I'm trying seven days a week
Looking at this picture of you only got me stressing hard
Tho I know it's wrong I feel like who am I to question God (who am I)
I only wish that I can bring you back my nigga
You kept it real so I'm a do just that my nigga

Today I'm here but nothing guarantee the latest
Shit I just got on the news and seen they just murdered the homie Gatta
They say the time here wounds in the hands of life
Mine a came and when I feeling like I missed it twice
I know we sacrifice but why you had to pay the price
Homie it was me and you but now it's me and rainy nights
And when I die it's where we pick up
You more than a brother don't ever once think I would switch up
I'm feel like I'm nothing but yet I stand when other niggas out here thanking I knew it when half ain't shown up at'cha way
And nothing real about[Hook][Chorus]
