

Rage On Rage

Beth Nielsen Chapman

First she gets angry
Then she gets sad
Then she's decided
It wasn't so bad This is the last time
This time he swore
She forgives him
Just this once more First, he starts drinking
Then he gets cruel
He don't like her thinking
He's anyone's fool
Teach her a lesson
Silence those eyes
Silence, silence
Later, he cries Oh, my sweet one
What have I done
Turn back the page and see
All that was done to me
Rage on rage He brings her flowers
Sweet bridal lace
She hangs the pictures
Back into place
The one of the wedding
Needs a new frame
This one can't be
Mended again
