

I'm Just Talkin' About Tonight

Toby Keith

Well, I'm not talkin bout locking down forever, baby.
That would be too demanding.
I'm just talkin bout two lonely people
who might reach a little understanding.
I'm not talkin bout knocking out heaven
with whether we're wrong or we're right.
I'm not talkin bout hooking up and hanging out.
I'm just talkin bout tonight. You were sitting on your bar stool talking to some fool who didn't have a clue.
I guess he couldn't see you were looking right at me cause I was looking at you too.
Then it's "do you wanna dance",
"have we ever met"
You said "hold your horses boy
I ain't that easy to get"
Well, I'm not talkin bout locking down forever, baby.
That would be too demanding.
I'm just talkin bout two lonely people
who might reach a little understanding.
I'm not talkin bout knocking out heaven
with whether we're wrong or we're right.
I'm not talkin bout hooking up and hanging out.
I'm just talkin bout tonight. She said "I only take it slow.
By now you oughta know that I ain't digging this.
If we can start as friends
the weekend just might end with a little kiss."
She said "I'm a lady looking for a man in my life
who will make a good husband.
I'll make a good wife."
Heehee easy now.
Well, I'm not talkin bout locking down forever, baby.
That would be too demanding.
I'm just talkin bout two lonely people
who might reach a little understanding.
I'm not talkin bout knocking out heaven
with whether we're wrong or we're right.
See, I'm not talkin bout hooking up and hanging out.

I'm just talkin bout tonight. Yeah, I'm just talkin bout a little bit later tonight.
