

Circadian Rhythm

Son Volt

Blind spot of a lifetime this litter
Pretty fingers on the phone
Nonviolent grace this religion
No one wants to be alone Reclaim the rust that northern birds stay
They like the sun to hit their feet
Bandeloro on the radio
Take a little time on Cherokee Street Ooh Ooh Ooh
Chaos and precision with a smile
Sipping soma in the shade
Thoughts for the plane with brown eyes waiting
Guitar callous whirlwind belief gets made Carried on so far under the cross
Manifestos to keep us sane
The time so weary of conflict
Silent answers, silent blame
Ooh Ooh Ooh
Ooh Ooh Ooh I can't stand any more indecision
I can't stand any more indecision Ooh Ooh Ooh
