Joji

I see nothing out the window, window

Nothing out the window Watching all the leaves grow, leaves grow Feels better in my dreams though, dreams thoughAnd the sun will shine, no more The sun will shine (antidote), no more I've been holding on, too long Holding on tool know when the wind blows, wind blows Feels better in my dreams though, dreams though I just wanna sleep forever Please just let me leave, forever I don't need an antidote, antidote I don't need an antidote, antidote I don't need an antidote, forever (Forever, forever) We don't wanna drive slow, drive slow Speed up with our eyes closed, eyes closedEyes closed, eyes closed Head down, eyes closed Ice cold, melt down
