

Worth My Time

Mary J. Blige

Its been hard on you
But its been hard on me
Cant you see my point of view
And every time we speak it leaves me weak
When you running away cuz you dont wanna hear what I say
Is it me, is it you, could it all what have make a mistake
But I wont give up
Make it worth my time
Weve been in some bone
We forgot how it feels to live by
Now wanna stay and I wont give up
If you make t worth my time
We are preaching this wrong and it isnt enough to get by
And I wanna stay nobody though
But we both feel the pain
Its ashamed and we took the change
But everything remains just the same
When you running away cuz you dont wanna hear what I say
Is it me, is it you, could it all what have make a mistake
But I wont give up
Make it worth my time
Weve been in some bone
We forgot how it feels to live by
Now wanna stay and I wont give up
If you make t worth my time
We are preaching this wrong and it isnt enough to get by
I wanna stay
You sacrifice, hows wrong or right?
Lets stick together now more than ever
But I wont give up
Make it worth my time
Weve been in some bone
We forgot how it feels to live by
Now wanna stay and I wont give up
If you make t worth my time
We are preaching this wrong and it isnt enough to get by
And I wanna stay
