

Fire Away (feat. The RTE Concert Orchestra)

Niall Horan

You keep saying that you're alright
But I can see it through your fake smile, you're not
There's a reservoir in your eyes
That you've been holding back a long time, what's wrong? Darling, you don't have to hold it
You don't have to be afraid
You can go ahead and unload it
'Cause you know it'll be okay
Fire away
Fire away
Hold me close but at a distance
Thinking I don't ever listen, but I do
I know sometimes it gets confusing
You might be lost but I ain't losing you Darling, you don't have to hold it
You don't have to be afraid
You can go ahead and unload it
'Cause you know it'll be okay
Fire away
Fire away
Fire away
Fire away
And I will steady your hand
When you're losing your grip
Even if I don't understand
You can talk to me
And I will steady your hand
When you're losing your grip
And even if I don't understand
You can talk to me
Fire away
Fire away
Fire away
Fire away
Fire away
