Lie To Me

Rob Thomas

I'm walking back from you
In a state cause all your words
Are soft and can be torn
Sooner or later
Those candy-coated girls
Who fall down at your feet
They don't mean much to me
Cause you feel like the real thingJust tell me anything
Girl you can lie to me
I want to hear you sing
Or scream and cry to me
I'll give you everything
Go on and try for me
Just tell me anything
Girl you can lie to me
When we were only young
We tried so hard not to fall
There was no way we could know
Falling was easy
And now we understand
The way the world goes
Sometimes you take what you get
Sometimes you get what you know
Just put your guard down
I know that nothing can stay
But you feel like the best thingJust tell me anything
Girl you can lie to me
I want to hear you sing
Or scream and cry to me
I'll give you everything
Go on and try for me
Just tell me anything
Girl you can lie to me
So drag me down
I can't say no
I'm far too gone
So don't let go
I'm hanging on
You feel my weight
You feel my weightJust tell me anything
Girl you can lie to me
I want to hear you sing

Or scream and cry to me
I'll give you everything
Go on and try for me
Just tell me anything
Girl you can lie to me
Just tell me anything
Girl you can lie to me
Just tell me anything
Girl you can lie to me
