

Good Love

Kelly Price

Check it out, Kelly You give good love
A real good love
Baby, I can't believe
You are my destiny You give good love
A real good love
Baby, I can't believe
You are my destiny Have I told you lately?
That I am grateful of my sweet baby
You're everything a woman could want
No maybes 'cause I can't keep it inside
Keep giving, giving me good love, yeah
You give good love
A real good love
Baby, I can't believe
You are my destiny You give good love
A real good love
Baby, I can't believe
You are my destiny Never thought one moment
That we're together could be so happy
The kind of love that's only in dreams
Don't wanna wake up if I lose your touch
Keep giving, giving me good love, yeah You give good love
A real good love
Baby, I can't believe
You are my destiny
You give good love
A real good love
Baby, I can't believe
You are my destiny I've been looking Trying to find something new (Something new, thank God, there's you)
Heaven sent a love to me that's so good
('Cause Heaven sent a love that'll love me like no other) Uh, break it down
Kelly Price, oh, oh, oh
Yeah, ya heard it right here, baby
Good love You give good love
A real good love
Baby, I can't believe
You are my destiny You give good love
A real good love
Baby, I can't believe
You are my destiny You give good love

A real good love
Baby, I can't believe
You are my destiny You give good love
Baby, I can't believe
You are my destiny You give good love, yeah, you do
Hey, you give good, baby
I can't believe, oh You give good love
Baby, I can't believe
Baby, I can't believe
Baby, I can't believe
