Booed Up (feat. Mylah)

Anthony David

We supposed to be warming each other up in the morning.
We supposed to be loving each other down in the evening time.
We supposed to be making each other breakfast in bed.
We supposed to be pillow talking, sharing what's on our mind.
We supposed to be booed up, we supposed to be booed up.
We supposed to be booed up, we supposed to be booed up, yeahListen, Its cold outside and it's best to be for me to be alone, and I want more than just us talking on the phone hurry up and come over to my place yeah. I don't wanna be by myself don't neglect me, or I don't know what I'd do, yes there are others but I rather be with you. Just being honest come home to me girl yeah.
We supposed to be warming each other up in the morning.

I tell myself that you're just a friend but the truth is that I care I love when you hold me tight, I could get used to this type of life with you boy yeah yeah. Now I don't wanna be by myself, but if you hurt me boy I don't know what I'd do. I know that there are others but I can't play number two. I'm just being honest before I come over to you boy, but let you tell it...
