

Quantum Immortality

Crywolf

On the lips of my love, I'm alone again
On the lips of my love, I'm alone again On the lips of my love, I'm alone again
But dreaming with a kiss
I could lose, I could fail, I could fold and then
Come right back to this
You've got your arms wide
And sin in your eyes I'm a thief, I'm a coward, I'm a fool, it hurts
Thinking this was real
When I lose, when I fall, clutching out of her
Everything I feel
You've got my hands tied
Innocent sacrifice
I feel I'm goin' under
'Cause my heart is bleeding colors
Only for you
Only for you And I feel I'm goin' under
'Cause my heart is bleeding colors
Only for you
Only for you On the lips of my love, I'm alone again
But dreaming with a kiss
I could lose, I could fall, I could fold and then
Come right back to this
You've got your arms wide
And sin in your eyes
On the lips of my love, I'm alone again
Bleed so, I can taste where your love has been Put your heart on my teeth, I can break the skin
Pull me close, you can feel where my live begins
You've got your long times
It's in you blood line And I feel I'm sinking deeper
'Cause you're clutching both my feet, dear
And my eyes are where this wouldn't faint my lungs And I feel I'm goin' under
'Cause my heart is bleeding colors
Only for you
Only for you And I feel I'm goin' under
'Cause your smile like you're my savior
While your hands keep getting
Tighter around my throat
