Stronger Than Me

Hardline

No, we can't lie and pretend that we love just like before
And no, we won't cry in the end there's no tears left anymore
I'm leaving home, gonna walk away
But before I go, I just wanna say
One thing that I knowYou're gonna be, stronger than me
I know that you're bleeding, I know you're in pain
But when everything is over, it won't feel the same
You're gonna be stronger, stronger than meNo, I won't try to believe we can make it follow through
And on, don't ask why I must leave, I can't take this not from you
Yeah, you're on your own, but you'll find a way
Yeah, come high or low, you'll be okay
There's one thing that I know
You're gonna be, stronger than me
I know that you're bleeding, I know you're in pain
But when everything is over, it won't feel the same
You're gonna be stronger, stronger than meStronger than me
I know that you're bleeding, I know you're in pain
But when everything is over, it won't feel the same
You're gonna be stronger, stronger than meYou're gonna be nothing left for me to say
In the end you're gonna be...You're gonna be, stronger than me...You're gonna be, stronger than me
I know that you're bleeding, I know you're in pain
But when everything is over, it won't feel the same
You're gonna be stronger, stronger than me
Stronger than me
I know that you're bleeding, I know you're in pain
But when everything is over, it won't feel the same
You're gonna be stronger, stronger than meStronger than me
I know that you're bleeding, I know you're in pain
But when everything is over, it won't feel the same
You're gonna be stronger, you're gonna be stronger than me
