

D Is for Dangerous

Arctic Monkeys

He knew what he wanted to say
But he did not want to word it
The dirty little Herbert
Was seeking an escape
But the place was well guardedThe guiltyness that started
Soon as the other part had stoppedD is for Delightful
And try to keep your trousers on
I think you should know you're his favourite worst nightmare
D is for...
Desperately trying to stimulate what it was thought was alright
3 Quarters of an hour ago
That had led him to be in a position
And every copper mission
And every other episode
He's nearing the brink but he thinks first
The parallel universe perhaps could be the perfect scene
He's nearing the brink but he thinks first
The parallel universe perhaps could be the perfect scene
He's nearing the brink but he thinks first
The parallel universe perhaps could be the perfect scene
He's nearing the brink but he thinks first
The parallel
I think you should know you're his favourite worst nightmareD is for Delightful
And try and keep your trousers on
You should know you're his favourite worst nightmare
