

Fade Out

Seeb, Olivia O'Brien & Space Primates

[Verse 1]

Not to be cold but it's only been 'bout two or three days
Thought it was clear when you didn't hear back for two or three days
I don't really wanna ghost you but I think I gotta go soon and
Nowadays we don't really do communication
Or things of that nature, yeah
I don't wanna ghost you but
I don't really wanna go through
Just another uncomfortable conversation

[Refrain]

So this is where I fade out
Yeah, this is where I fade out[Pre-Chorus]
Sorry to disappear
But I know that I can't say what you want to hear
You'll get over it
I never wanna give out fake love
Nothing you can say when my mind's made up
So sorry to disappear[Chorus]
But, baby, this is where I fade out
Yeah, this is where I fade out
You'll get over it
I never wanna give out fake love
Nothing you can say when my mind's made up
So I fade out

[Verse 2]

Don't pretend that you wanna hear all the reasons I'm not into you
I can let it all out, but I don't see how that would feel good to you
You don't really want closure, nah
You just want me to come over one more time
And honestly that's not gonna change a thing[Refrain]
So this is where I fade out
Yeah, this is where I fade out[Pre-Chorus]
Sorry to disappear
But I know that I can't say what you want to hear
You'll get over it
I never wanna give out fake love
Nothing you can say when my mind's made up
So sorry to disappear[Chorus]
But, baby, this is where I fade out
Yeah, this is where I fade out
You'll get over it

I never wanna give out fake love
Nothing you can say when my mind's made up
So sorry to disappear[Bridge]
You think I'll come down with a case of regret
But I trust my gut and it ain't let me down yet
So why we gotta have an awkward moment?
I already know where this is going
I ain't gonna change my mind, change my mind[Chorus]
But, baby, this is where I fade out
Yeah, this is where I fade out
You'll get over it
I never wanna give out fake love
Nothing you can say when my mind's made up
So sorry to disappear (I'm sorry)
But, baby, this is where I fade out
Yeah, this is where I fade out
You'll get over it
I never wanna give out fake love
Nothing you can say when my mind's made up
So I fade out
