

You Are Fire

Prince Royce

I've been waiting all day
Checking the time for when she arrives, yeah.

...

Open a bottle of wine...
She likes chardonnay, I'm well on my way, yeah
...No, she don't know my palms are sweaty
I'm nervous, I've been dressed and ready
And when I open up the door she asks
"How do I look?"

I say
You are fire

...

But your blue eyes,
Are brighter
...I've never felt this way before
Stay for a while and close the door
'cause you are fire.

...Tomorrow is coming too soon
Let's do this again

See you at ten, yeah If you like to, instead Stay in my room, it's already noon.

...

No, she don't know my palms are sweaty
So nervous, damn she's sweet and sexy
She pulls on my favourite shirt
And asks
"How do I look?"

I say
You are fire

...

But your blue eyes,
Are brighter

I've never felt this way before
Stay for a while and close the door
'cause you are fire.

...

There's no need too much

...

Just relax 'cause tonight's gonna do what it does

...

I can't get enough, I just gotta say

...

I just gotta say, I just gotta say.

...

You are fire

...

But your blue eyes,
Are brighter

I've never felt this way before
Stay for a while and close the door
'cause you are fire.

You are fire
You are fire
But your blue eyes,
Are brighter

I've never felt this way before

...

I've never felt this way before
You are fire.
