

That Lonesome Song

Jamey Johnson

That mornin' sun made its way
Through the windshield of my Chevrolet
Whiskey eyes and ashtray breath
On a chert rock gravel road What the hell did I do last night?
That's the story of my life,
Like tryin' to remember words
To a song nobody wrote And it's sad and it's long
And can't nobody sing along
It's a south bound train
It's a whistle in the wind
Ain't no one there to care where I've been
I'm hummin' on that lonesome song again
I took a trip across the country from Montgomery
Discovered I'd been wrong for so long
I thought it was the fame and the glory and the money
But all I've got to show is a damn song And it's sad and it's long
And can't nobody sing along
It's a south bound train
It's a whistle in the wind
There's no one there to sing to in the end
I'm hummin' on that lonesome song again And it's sad and it's long
And can't nobody sing along
It's a south bound train
It's a whistle in the wind
Ain't no one there to care where I've been
I'm hummin' on that lonesome song again
The mornin' sun made its way
Through the windshield of my Chevrolet
Whiskey eyes and ashtray breath
On a chert rock gravel road...
