

Rivals (feat. Future)

Usher

She got me throwing Spades Ace with that mouth
I guess only time gon' tell
You gotta give me dirty love
I guess I'm down too
When I can't find any words I lie
Look up and see the stars in a perfect line
The feeling of love is a global thing So tell me how you feel (how you feel)
Knowing I see the world when I look in your eyes
Your kisses are Duracell, they keep me energized
Tired of going back and forth, baby I'm hypnotized
You gotta a nigga on the love on the low though
I'm looking at you and I swear it's been a long road
A great ass, a better mind, what a combo
You know you pretty and you winning with the convo
She kinda tipsy, we been drinking, she's a light weight
She love the way I'm pull them panties in the right way
But anyway let's get back to how I've been feeling
I just love the times when I'm beside ya
Holding me down cause you're my rider
I look in your eyes and I get higher
There's nothing in this world I hold tighter
Without you I feel uneven
Make every day our love season
Baby girl you know you're my rider
That should be enough reason
Call you baby that's only your title
Cause I don't need no more rivals
(You gotta give me that)
I put that on the Bible
(You gotta give me that girl)
You're the only thing that I want
Give me that feelin'
Make every day our love season
Dirty lover you are my rider
That should be enough reason
I call you baby that's only your title
Cause I don't need no more rivals
I put that on the Bible
I'ma love ya till my time's gone
You gotta give me dirty love
I've been here and trust me, I've seen it all before though
I told my ex for me relationships a no-no

And here I am thinking we perfect like a photo
You looking at me like right now you need some mo', mo'
I know you ready and willing but that ain't my place
I know you wanna settle down, all on your face
Feeling startin' to get too familiar
So cover up this broken love treason Make every day our love season
Dirty lover you are my rider
That should be enough reason
I call you baby that's only your title
Cause I don't need no more rivals
I put that on the Bible
You're the only thing that I want
Give me that feelin'
Make every day our love season
Dirty lover you are my rider
That should be enough reason
Call you bae that's only your title
Cause I don't need no more rivals
I put that on the Bible
I'ma love ya till my time's gone You say I see ya side by side
Like a visionary, I can't see me falling
(Nothing's changed)
Like a dictionary, I can't read through all this (Eyes wide open)
I still fall blind I don't know how this will end
Let's go back to the beginning
Let's cover up this broken love treason Make every day our love season
Dirty lover you are my rider
That should be enough reason
Call you baby that's only your title
Cause I don't need no more rivals
I put that on the Bible
You're the only thing that I want Gimme that
Ay, ay
Yes you are
I love you, baby
I don't wanna be enemies, baby
I want you to be friends with me, babe
Uhhh
