

Los Angeles Waltz

Razorlight

I've been sitting here patiently,
I've been talking to myself
Trying to shake that sinking feeling,
Wishing I was somebody else And I know it's not easy,
When you don't get what you deserve
You can say that you love me,
But that's not what I've heard Tonight in L.A.
Tonight in L.A.
Well it's got to be that way
Tonight in L.A. Maybe I'll get right out of here,
All the way back to Turnpike Lane
Find me a girl who can calm me right down,
It's been such a fucked up year
And I know it's not easy,
When you don't get what you deserve
You can say that you love me,
But that's not what I've heard Tonight in L.A.
Tonight in L.A.
Well it's got to be that way
Tonight in L.A. Maybe I'll get myself together,
Or fall to pieces and run back home
Get me a ticket for an airplane,
I'm tired of being alone I was on Mulholland Drive with the radio on,
They played Augustus Pablo and the Kings of Leon We sing, we know it's not easy,
When you don't get what you deserve
And you can say that you love me,
But that's not what I've heard
Tonight in L.A.
Tonight in L.A.
Well it's got to be that way
Tonight in L.A. I think of you,
How we own each other
I think of you,
Yeah we own each other
Own each other
Tonight in L.A.
Tonight in L.A.
Tonight in L.A.
Tonight in L.A.
Tonight in L.A.
Tonight in L.A. Mars and the U.S.A.
In fall, and the Milky Way

It's got to be that way
Kinski's on Broadway
Home a million miles away, away, away You've met your match
Stars catch your eyes
You've tried I'll bet
You've met your match
You burn like fire
I hide your love
You trust your nerve
You burn like fire
I steal I lie
I tried the thrill
You build me up
You steal you lie
And love me still
Like me you tried
You've cried I'll bet
You've met your match

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>