

Incomplete

James Bay

I breathe in slow to compose myself
But the bleeding heart I left on the shelf
Started speeding up, beating half to death
'Cause you're here, & you're all mine So I press my lips down to your neck
& I stay there & I reconnect
Bravery I've been trying to perfect
It can wait for a while Scared of the hope in my head
It's making me sweat, but it turns out
You're here with your head on my chest
I should've guessed The world will turn & we'll grow
We'll learn how to be
To be incomplete
I breathe out now, & we fall back in
Just like before, we can re-begin
Let your lungs push slow up against my skin Let it all feel just right
Gone is the emptiness
We just take what's best, & we move on
All of the hurt gets left I should've guessed
That the world will turn, & we'll grow
We'll learn how to be
To be incomplete This, here, now
It's where we touch down
You & me Let's be incomplete
How we ever go without
I don't know
But it looks like we've made it again
Tell me you'll never look down, down & the world will turn & we'll grow
We'll learn how to be
To be incom - I don't wanna look down
I don't want us to break up in the clouds
All I want is to stay us, to stay with you now
I don't wanna look down
I don't want us to break up in the cloud
All I want is to stay us, to stay with you now
& the world will turn & we'll grow
We'll learn how to be
To be incomplete
& this, here, now
It's where we touch down
You & me
Let's be incomplete
