

The Story So Far

Flogging Molly

You always had what you wanted
So leave it behind
And if the glass isn't broken
Then the future's not blind All that you know
Means nothing to you
But it's the loss of control
Shatters the truth Cause the story so far is already here
We've made it this far through the daggered-edge spears
But life cuts to pieces till the wounds hold no secrets
Makes it all who you are Love craves self destruction
It's a blizzard in hand
You lay your cards on the table
But you're not in command
So burn with the fire
You so eagerly lit
Watch the flames flicker higher
Say I don't care about me Cause the story so far is already here
We've made it this far through the daggered-edge spears
But life cuts to pieces till the wounds hold no secrets
Makes it all who you are Makes it all who you are
Makes it all who you are
Makes it all who you are Though it's bitter, the pill
That you swallow to feel
I don't care what I lost
I just thank God I'm alive
Makes it all who you are
Makes it all who you are
Makes it all who you are
Makes it all who you are That's the story so far
