

Nothing But Love (feat. Jay Buchanan)

The Bloody Beetroots

I'd like to tell you that I'm reading you a love story
But I'm only reading you a bill For everything that you took away from me
And the way you made me feel Sacrifice, it's give and take
It's all part of the deal You might say your love was fake
But I know mine was real Ain't nothing but love, love
Don't tell me that you love me when we both know it isn't true
Ain't nothing but love, love
Everybody knows that a bad love ain't no good for you
Slashing through our fears with your solitaire blade
Cutting our connection right in two Sleeping on the bed where all our promises were made
I thought that you'd be there to see them through Try to balance both our hearts along this wicked knife
How much blood can we both lose and make it through the night?
Ain't nothing but love, love
Don't tell me that you love me when we both know it isn't true
Ain't nobody but love, love
Everybody knows that a bad love ain't no good for you Oh my love Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>