

Pretty Little Adriana

Vince Gill

You sure have a pretty smile
It sure has been a while
Since I've felt your touch You've got the sweetest way
I think about you every day
And I miss you so much Oh, my pretty little Adriana
Are you lonesome tonight?
Oh, my pretty little Adriana
I'll find you when it all feels right
You're so soft and innocent
The sweetest night I ever spent
Was being held in your embrace You're such a gentle soul
It's killing me to know
When will I see your face Oh, my pretty little Adriana
Are you lonesome tonight?
Oh, my pretty little Adriana
I'll find you when it all feels right Oh, my pretty little Adriana
Are you lonesome tonight?
Oh, my pretty little Adriana
I'll find you when it all feels right
Oh, my pretty little Adriana
Are you lonesome tonight?
Oh, my pretty little Adriana
I'll find you when it all feels right Adriana
