

No One Knows Who We Are (feat. Lights)

Kaskade & Swanky Tunes

We are shouting
We are whispering
We give it all
We have nothing Built our houses on our hands
We are confident in our own plans
Here we sleep and here we stand
We are right now No one know who we are
No one gave us a mark
No one know who we are
No one gave us a mark
We have held back
We have pushed on
We can control
We can look on We're not searching for a name
Or looking back the way we came
We're not lost, we're not ashamed
We are right now
No one know who we are
No one gave us a mark
No one know who we are
No one gave us a mark
