

Ticking Bomb

Aloe Blacc

The whole world sittin' on a ticking bomb
The whole world sittin' on a ticking bomb
So keep yo calm, & carry on
The whole world sittin' on a ticking bombSun may never rise again
The question ain't if but when Sea will mourn and the sky will fall
The sun may never rise again
The silent war has begun
The staring down loaded gun
No refuge found, no solid ground
Assuming race can't be won
Don't wait to say goodbye, you're running out of time
Whatever you believe it's easy to seeThe whole world sittin' on a ticking bomb
The whole world sittin' on a ticking bomb
So keep your calm, & carry on
The whole world sitting on a ticking bomb
And it's about to explodeThe whole world, the whole world
The whole world, the whole worldMy future is dying on Laying in a ditch in the dark
I need you here, but all I hearIs the beating of a broken heart,
Don't wait to say goodbye,
you're running out of time
Whatever you believe it's easy to see
The whole world sittin' on a ticking bomb,
The whole world sittin' on a ticking bomb,
So keep your calm, & carry on,
The whole world's sitting on a ticking bomb
And it's about to explode
The whole world, the whole world
The whole world, the whole world
And it's about to explode
The whole world, the whole world
The whole world, the whole world
The whole world sittin' on a ticking bomb
The whole world sittin' on a ticking bomb
And it don't care what side you're on
The whole world sittin' on a ticking bomb
The whole world, the whole world
The whole world, the whole world
So keep your calm, carry on
The whole world sitting on a ticking bomb
