Help Us To Love (feat. The HamilTones)

Tori Kelly

Mmm, no
Mmm, yeahThere's a love so high
(That you cannot get over)
That same love's so wide
(It'll take forever just to get round it)
But love died somewhere
Behind that cross you wear
You're afraid when you look at me
That ain't real love
Not the kind from above, hmm
But there's a friend of mine
(That stays closer than a brother)
Oooh, love laid down his life
(So why do we still fight one another?)
All this hate I see on the TV screen
In my country 'tis of thee
God help us to love, to love the way that you love me
Hmmm, God help us to love the way that you love me, oh ohThis world is weeping, hurting, broken and begging for change
Oh yeah
But still we marching, praying, dying, and things stay the same
When will we see?
Till everyone's free
There'll never be peace between you and me
God, your love is the cure
For the rich and the poor
God, please will you open our eyes?
'Cause I want a love so high
(That you cannot get over)
Oooh, I want a love so wide
(It'll take forever just to get round it)
No, no, no, no, no
But it don't come cheap
It takes everything to make love more than a dreamGod help us to love
(God help us to love)
God help us to love
(This world needs your love)
We need your love
(What we need now is love)
Fill us with your love, Lord
(Unconditional love)
We need your love

(Rain down on us, your love)
Oh, we need your love
(Fill us please with your love)
God help me to love the way that you love me
