I Feel You

Schiller

I feel youI feel you, in every stone
In every leaf of every tree
That you ever might have grownI feel you, in every thing
In every river that might flow
In every seed you might have sownI feel you
I feel you
I feel you, in every stone
In every leaf of every tree
That you ever might have grown
I feel you, in every thing
In every river that might flow
In every seed you might have sownI feel you
I feel you
I feel youI feel you
I feel you, in every vein
In every beatin' of my heart
Each breath I takeI feel you, anyway
In every tear that I might shed
In every word I've never saidI feel you
I feel you
I feel you
I feel you
I feel you, in every vein
In every beatin' of my heart
In every breath I'll ever take
I feel you, anyway
In every tear that I might shed
In every word I've never said
I feel you
I feel you
I feel you
I feel you
I feel you
I feel you
