

Soon You'll Be Somebody Else

Moddi

if you keep changing yourself than soon youll be somebody else and the end of the string, would be our rose and our rose it is a dying thing well all i can promise is to stay like this always and by all other names just as sweet i wish all you would wish was a house with a yard, full of flying fish and the bell that id ring would be our roses our rose it could be anything
i will crack you open just to keep you closer cause without you our rose is just a rose and i will swallow the vomit just to keep you coming cause without you im so halalao.
