

Cursed

Theatres des Vampires

When the darkness falls you see a new world the winter's embrace lost... in the forest Silence... deep secret hidden in the dark the witches and their spells the trees seem alive tears of your mother cry 'cause you are dead entombed in a dismal coffin "From the grave I rise to search for the virtue, that I miss, of love my lost groom to embrace and suck the blood of his heart..."
"Gange la mort avec tous tes appétits at ton goïsme et tous les péchés capitaux" When the darkness fall you come back to life with pointed teeth... and your red eyes
