

Dance Her Home

Cody Johnson

Here she comes walkin in, cotton dress a swishin
Smoke is thick and the lights are dim and she sure got me wishin
For a little bit of time out on that ol dancefloor
If she gives me half a chance at romance im gonna dance her homeHey bartender see that girl ask her what shes drinkin, tell her if she looks this way ill be the one awakin, cause I saw her light up when the jukebox played haggard and jones If she gives me half a chance at romance im gonna dance her homeCause if we got to twosteppin we could come up missin,
and find a corner booth of our own
Just a huggin and a kissin like two lovers reminiscin, man this feelings comin on strong
If she gives me half a chance at romance im gonna dance her home (aw yeah)
What the hell is wrong with me I feel like im sinkin, how hard can it really be to tell her what im thinkin,
that if we got to two-steppin, we could come up missin,
and find a corner booth of our own
just a huggin and a kissin like two lovers reminiscin,
man this feelings comin on strong,
if she gives me half a chance at romance im gonna dance her home
if she gives me half a chance at romanceim gonna dance her home Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>