Lights Out (feat. Atlas)

Zeds Dead

You know the night is young Im trying to have some fun And youre the only one one one Were gonna leave the city Well drive and drive for miles No time to think about it Lets run away lets run ooouh The city has my hearth But now were miles apart Well make a brand new start start start Lets find a new begining No time to turn back now This rode is never ending Well find a way somehow ooouh We got that city lights And are they burning bright The city lights And are they burning bright The city lights And theyre burning bright The city lights Abd theyre burning bright The city lights Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941.
