

Truth Never Lies (feat. Aloe Blacc)

Lost Frequencies

Faded lights on broken nights
Where lovers fight like children play
There's a shadow in your house
It's full of doubt never goes away
Open doors, unspoken wars
The words are running round your head
Things you never meant to say
And things you wish you would have said
You can make a deal with the devil
Or a deal with the Lord
Just two notes ringing on the same passing chord
Say what you want
Say what you need
But the truth I know the truth
Has never lie to me
Say that I'm wrong
Just let me be
Cuz the truth I know the truth
Will never lie, never lie to me
Me, never lie to me
Open doors, unspoken wars
The words are running round your head
Things you never meant to say
And things you wish you would have said
You can make a deal with the devil
Or a deal with the Lord
Just two notes ringing on the same passing chord
Say what you want
Say what you need
But the truth I know the truth
Has never lie to me
Say that I'm wrong
Just let me be
Cuz the truth I know the truth
Will never lie, never lie to me
Me, never lie to me
Me, never lie to me
Hold all of your cards a little closer
So no one will ever know
Who you really are inside
Cuz you never let it show
You can make a deal with the devil
Or a deal with the Lord
Just two notes ringing on the same passing chord
Say what you want
Say what you need
But the truth I know the truth
Has never lie to me
Say that I'm wrong
Just let me be

Cuz the truth I know the truth
Will never lie, never lie to meMe, never lie to meMe, never lie to meTruth will never lieMe, never lie to meMe, never lie to me
