

Body

SYML

In my body I have a master
I bow down when she comes around
In my body I'm a disaster
I break down when you shake the ground Every time I stand to leave my cage
In my broken body I stay I want to love like a man
I'll build you a home when I can
Give my new body a chance
Patient now it's all that I have
I fought the world for your hand
I fought the world for your hand
Give my new body a chance
Give my new body a chance
It's all I have
In my body I fight fire
With the snow, my hell is cold
In my body I have a soft light
Burning low, but too hot to hold
I've become the only thing I hate
Leave this broken body today I want to love like a man
I'll build you a home when I can
Give my new body a chance
Patient now it's all that I have
I fought the world for your hand
I fought the world for your hand
Give my new body a chance
Oh, give my new body a chance
I was hearing words in black and white
Twisted up inside my broken mind
Outstretched dirty hands just like a child
Hungry little fool, but you were mine
You're all I have
You're all I have Give my new body a chance
Give my new body a chance
