We Will Be (feat. Matt Wills)

Wilkinson

thousand reasons to keep the sea and the wind
We're stuck inside a season and we're drowning in the painWhen our hopes and dreams and floating down the river
Just remember we have power to believe
We could rise and fight to stand up and deliver
We will be, we will be
We will be, oh
We will be, oh
We will be, oh
We will be
We will be
We will be, oh, ohTrials and tribulations thrust upon my feet
I'm losing all my patience and it's impossible to breathe
When our hopes and dreams and floating down the river
Just remember we have power to believe
We could rise and fight to stand up and deliver
We will be, we will be
We will be, oh
We will be, oh
We will be, oh
We will be
We will be
We will be, oh, oh
We will be
