

Night Train

Jason Aldean

I've been thinkin' bout you all day baby waitin' on that sun to go down whatcha say I pick you up after work slide over, well slip out to the outskirts of town got a blanket and a fifth of comfort a little something to knock off the edge it's supposed to get a little cool tonight looks like i'm gonna have to hold you tight... yeah Bout a mile off old mill road in that spot nobody knows park the truck and we take off running hurry up, girl I hear it coming got a moon and a billion stars sound of steel and old box cars the thought of you is driving me insane come on baby lets go listen to the night train Yeah I hope its gonna be a long one if were lucky its moving slow wouldn't mind if it lasted all night lying next to you on that hillside let's go Bout a mile off old mill road
sound of steel and old box cars
the thought of you is driving me insane
come on baby lets go listen to the night train Let's go listen to the night train Let's go listen to the night train Bout a mile off old mill road
in that spot nobody knows
sound of steel and old box cars
the thought of you is driving me insane
