Breathless

Gurr

Running out of breath in the night
Do you like me now I guessed so yes I'm alright
Lost and lonely like a one time lover
I'm wearing tights 'cuz tonight I'll only stay for a night,
I'll only stay for a nightGive me those big false eyes of wonder
Sticky kisses, a big jacket which we can hide under Kissing you feels like 1984
And we laugh and we fall we crash bottles on the floor
And I need to get more
Bottles down to the floor
Boston, New York, Chicago
And your name I didn't know
I still wear your leather coat
And I'm running out of breath
And I'm running out of breath
