Picky

Teddy Swims

She's so picky
But she don't ever know what she wants
YeahGirl, are you with me?
Are you just leading me on?Yeah, yeah, yeah
You always change your mind, you keep me guessing
Girl, you know you're fine and this is stressful
I know the elephant in love well needs addressing
The way you start undressing
I forget it, we can get it on
You put a little logic bae
Throw me out of the way
She gonna get me coming right back
Yeah, yeah, yeah
She got everything that I like
Baby even got a fat ass
Got an even bigger ass
Damn...
(Cuz', she got it like that)She's so picky
But she don't ever know what she wants
YeahGirl, are you with me?
Are you just leading me on?
Yeah, yeah, yeahYeah
Remember back of the class
I was gripping on your thighs
Tryna get to 3rd base
You gon' have to let me slide
Run the game to home plate
We gon have fun and child, hold up
Now you wanna change your mind
All that back and forth shit, baby
You just can't decide
Hell and I can't even flex,
Girl that mad me feel alive
Tell me you feeling different
I'm really bad about listening
And try me baby I'm with you
Just pull up with you to get itShe's so picky
But she don't ever know what she wants
Yeah
Girl, are you with me?
Are you just leading me on?
Yeah, yeah, yeahOut of all the girls in all the world

That I could ever love
I get so lucky to find
One that can make up her mindOut of all the girls in all the world
That I could ever love
I get so lucky to find
One that can make up me feel aliveShe's so picky
But she don't ever know what she wants
Girl, are you with me?
Are you just leading me on?
