The Only One Who Gets Me

Charles Kelley

Kinda selfish
A little crazy
But you love me anyway, baby
I'm hard to handle
I'm sometimes reckless
With a heart that's always restless
You're the only one
The only one who gets me good
Who knows me like nobody ever could
Who holds me, strong
Who puts me back together when it all goes wrong
Yeah I want you to know you're the only one who gets me
You're timeless
A little glamour
With a little wine you're my tiny dancer
You're the calm
You're the steel
When my mind starts spinning those wheels
You're the only one
The only one who gets me good
Who knows me like nobody ever could
Who holds me, strong
Who can put me back together when it all goes wrong
Yeah I want you to know you're the only one who gets me
Yeah we're home
That's what you feel like
Home
Yeah girl you're the only one who gets me
I, oh who could steal all my attention
Even after all this time
Who loves me so strong
Who can put me back together when it all goes wrong
And I want you to know you're the only one who gets me
You're the only one
