Judith Rules (Secoya Remix)

I See Stars

You can try to take this from us You waste your days away counting numbers I will never let this goI won't let this go This opportunity to leave my head I'd be nothing without this We'd be nothing without this Waiting for the show I'll leave this room with far more hope Waiting for the show I'll leave this room with far more hopeI'll jump until my legs give in I'll scream until there's nothing left to say The only faith I ever had in me was because you were singing Waiting for the show I'll leave this room with far more hope This is our life We're all kings for now And I'm wasting light This is our life We're all kings for now And I'm wasting lightI won't let this go This opportunity to leave my head I'd be nothing without this We'd be nothing without this This is our life We're all kings for now We're all wasting light away I won't let you down I'll jump until my legs give in I'll scream until there's nothing left to say The only faith I ever had in me was because you were singing Waiting for the show I'll leave this room with far more hope Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941.
